

GEENA & RUFUS

International Americana Folk with a Social Conscience

Overview

GEENA & RUFUS are an Italian songwriter and artist couple crafting evocative Americana folk infused with socially conscious storytelling. Internationally active and independently driven, the duo writes, records, produces, and promotes their own music — building an authentic artistic path that has resonated with audiences across Europe, Australia, and the United States.

Blending sweet vocal harmonies with organic instrumentation and thoughtful production, their sound bridges classic folk traditions and contemporary relevance. At the heart of their music lies a clear message:

“Be free in your choice of life.”

Sound & Style

Rooted in Americana folk, GEENA & RUFUS combine:

- Warm, intimate harmonies
- Acoustic-driven arrangements
- Cinematic textures and organic production
- Poetic, socially reflective lyrics

Their music speaks to themes of deceleration, sustainability, non-material values, and personal freedom — creating songs that uplift while encouraging critical thought.

Fans of conscious folk, modern Americana, and independent artistry will find a natural connection in their work.

The Artists

Geena – Vocals & Songwriting

Geena began her musical journey early, inspired by iconic folk traditions and shaped by deeply personal experiences. Her expressive voice and poignant lyricism create an emotional bridge between artist and audience, drawing listeners into intimate, reflective narratives.

Rufus – Multi-Instrumentalist & Producer

Rufus is a versatile autodidact musician and skilled producer whose diverse musical background shapes the duo's sonic identity. His innovative arrangements and textured production elevate their songwriting, creating a signature sound that feels both timeless and contemporary.

Together, their creative synergy defines GEENA & RUFUS as a fully independent, self-produced artistic force.
